D.O. No.K-11022/67/2012-AR

Dated 11th April 2014

Subject- Abolition of Affidavit and Promotion of Self-certification

Dear Sri Rajesh,

Kindly refer to my Office Memorandum of even number dated 10 May 2013 on the above subject (copy enclosed). Government of Punjab has taken a pioneering effort in this regard and a brief presentation is enclosed.

2. Some Ministries and State Governments like Government of Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Jharkhand have adopted the provision of self-certification of documents such as mark sheet, birth certificate etc. by the applicants/ stakeholders. Under the self-attestation method, the original documents are required to be produced at the final stage.

3. You will appreciate that the above method is citizen friendly and obtaining either an attested copy or affidavit not only costs huge money to the poor citizen but also involves wastage of time of the citizens as well as of the Government officials. A Concept Paper of Government of Punjab can be seen on our website (www.darpg.gov.in).

4. I will request you to kindly review the existing requirements of affidavits and attested copy in various forms in your Ministry/Department in a phased manner and wherever possible, make provision of self-certification of documents.

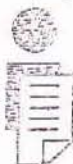

With warm regards

Yours sincerely,

Sanjay Kothari
